Coalition of Various Organizations Follows Two Days of Negotiating.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
CHICAGO, July 13.—After two days of dicker and negotiating between the minor political parties now in Chicago the way was cleared here shortly before noon for the birth of a united third party probably tonight.

A joint convention embracing the Committee of Forty-Eight, the American Labor party, the Single Tax party and representatives of the Non-Partisan League and smaller organizations probably will be held tonight at which candidates for president and vice president will be nominated and a platform adopted.

Agreement to meet in a joint convention was made with the name of the new party and the platform still in doubt. These will be settled later.

The instrument through which the amalgamation as effected was found after a morning of dissension during which it appeared several times that the coalition was doomed to failure.

The Labor party at its convention in Carman's hall took the bull by the horns finally and voted to go ahead and nominate a candidate for president at 8:30 o'clock tonight regardless of everything. Then at the Morrison hotel, where the convention of the Forty-Eighters was in progress, H. F. Wilkie, of Maryland, as chairman of the committee on political procedure, brought in report stating:

The Labor party of the United States and the Committee of Forty-Eight shall unite in a new political party.

Put to a vote, Wilkie's report was unanimously adopted, and a committee

LA FOLLETTE
TICKET CHOICE

Wisconsin Senator is Favorite for Third Party Nomination.

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS.
CHICAGO, July 13.—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin will be the third party's nominee for the presidency, probably by acclamation, if there is third party.

Such was the feeling here today as are various political conventions got under way impatient for the reports of their numerous committees and sub-committees charged with the task of trying to iron out their party differences and pave the way for everybody to get together under one big roof in one big convention to start on its way.

If it is not La Follette—that is if the senator from Wisconsin will not accept the nomination, it may be Henry Ford, the auto king. He will not refuse to run, if drafted, it was stated here today.

The automobile manufacturer, it was understood, has made no direct reply to the unofficial queries sent out from the conventions here, but Charles H. Hoffman of Michigan was informed by Ford's secretary, speaking for Ford that, while the latter was in no way to be considered a candidate for any office whatever, if in spite of himself he should be nominated, he would feel obligated to accept and run as a matter of public duty.

Senator La Follette, however, for the present looks well nigh a certainty providing the two big conventions—the Committee of Forty-Eight and Labor party—can enter into a real combine and gather about them the other advanced parties: The Non-Partisan League, the American Constitutional party, the Single Tax party, the American party of Texas, World War Veterans, Private Soldiers' and Sailors' league and so on.

Calls Off Conferences In Order to Devote Time to Work.

LONGWORTH IS VISITOR

Late Col. Roosevelt's Son-In-Law and Wife Visit Harding.

By A. O. HAYWARD.

MARION, O., July 13.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee, conferred this morning with Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, and then went into retirement to work uninterruptedly on his acceptance speech.

The senator announced that he could give no more time to conferences until after he has completed the draft of his speech which he is preparing with the greatest care. All his time yesterday was devoted to conferences with his many callers.

Longworth, who was Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the late Col. Roosevelt, were house guests of Senator and Mrs. Harding last night. The discussion between the senator and Nick Longworth covered national as well as Ohio state politics. Longworth is a candidate for re-election to congress. If elected he is expected to be a candidate for the speakership of the national house of representatives.

Raymond Robbins of Chicago, and Walter F. Brown, of Ohio, leaders in the "Bull Moose" campaign of 1916 and prominent Progressives, were in conference with Senator Harding throughout the afternoon yesterday. Robbins discussed with the senator labor and progressive legislation.

"We had a satisfactory conference," he said at its conclusion. "I will support the Republican ticket and take the stump for it if asked. The senator and I are in substantial agreement. From what I hear the overwhelming number of Progressives will go to the Republican ticket. No one can control the labor vote as a mass. It cannot be controlled by a third party ticket. We must make good on liberty under law. There is a class cleavage in Europe. There is a class group seeking to make good in this country. The next four years will determine whether we shall go forward with our free institutions, free religion, free speech and free economic conditions, or whether we shall go backward."

J. F. Johnston, Cashier of New Waterford Bank, Called to Texas to Identify Alleged Stolen Securities.

Believed to have been one of a gang of yeggs who entered the New Waterford Savings and Banking company on the night of September 25 and escaped with $15,000 worth of government securities, a man giving his name as Ed. L. Flanigan was being held Tuesday at Fort Worth, Tex., in default of $15,000 bond following his arraignment in the U. S. district court on a charge of forging and uttering forged U. S. securities.

Flanigan was arrested in a small town about 75 miles from Dallas, Tex. by U. S. secret service agents after several weeks' chase through Louisiana and southern Texas. He is alleged to have negotiated a loan of $17,000 from a Shreveport, La., bank, leaving $22,000 worth of stolen government bonds as collateral security.

The man appeared before the officials of a Shreveport bank about the middle of last October and sought to make a loan upon the strength of the bonds. Bankers detected evidence of erasure on the bonds and declined to make the loan. They later notified secret service agents of the incident.

In the meantime, Flanigan succeeded in negotiating a loan and disappeared, it is claimed. His arrest followed a few weeks later.

Officials of the bank where the $17,000 loan was made identified Flanigan as the possessor of the bonds. A part of the securities, it is alleged, were stolen from a bank at Reedy, W. Va., and the balance from the New Waterford bank. J. F. Johnston, cashier of the New Waterford bank was notified of the man's capture and went to Texas to identify the securities.

Flanigan was still in the U. S. federal prison at Fort Worth, Tex., awaiting extradition to Shreveport, La., when Mr. Johnston left for home.

He will be arraigned in the U. S. court in Louisiana, Mr. Johnston was told.

HARDING GETS CAMPAIGN FUND CONTRIBUTION FROM BOY HERE

Russell Heddleston, Jr., Sends $5 Bill to G. O. P. Nominee.

REPLY FROM SENATOR

Contribution Will Be Forwarded to Chairman Will R. Hays.

If U. S. Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, is sent to the White House at the November general election, an 11-year-old East Liverpool boy will share the feeling of elation over the victory of the Republican party standard bearer.

In a letter just received at Harding's headquarters at Marion, Russell Heddleston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Heddleston, West Fifth street, enclosed a self-earned $5 bill for Harding's campaign fund. The lad wrote:

"I want to help elect you president. I am 11 years old and of course can't vote. How I wish I could."

"My sisters addressed cards with your picture on, when I was a little boy. Now I want to do something for you. I hope you will be the next president."

On reading the letter, Senator Harding dictated an immediate reply, as follows:

"I am so pleased to have your letter, with a contribution to the Republican campaign and your very enthusiastic tender of help in carrying on the campaign."

"It pleased me to have you recall the activity in your home when I was a candidate for the United States Senate and it encourages me immensely to know you are going to give of your youthful energy and enthusiasm to elect me to the presidency of the United States."

"I am sending your contribution to Chairman Hays and I shall be disappointed if he does not make a grateful acknowledgement. Meanwhile, you must know of my very sincere appreciation and the pleasure your letter afforded me. With best wishes I am, very sincerely yours,

WARREN G. HARDING."

WOMAN FINED $300 ON PROHIBITION COUNT

Pleading guilty to a charge of violating the city prohibition enforcement ordinance, Mrs. Amamuri Boliyons, Mapletree street, East End, was fined $300 when arraigned before Mayor J. S. Wilson Tuesday afternoon. The fine was paid and the woman released.

Analysis of a sample of "Dago Red" confiscated by Chief Hugh McDermott and Patrolman C. D. Hissam in a raid on Mrs. Boliyons' residence Saturday night, revealed an alcoholic content of over 10 per cent. Eight barrels of the concoction will be destroyed by the police.

The woman was given the maximum fine under the city ordinance.

Following the enactment by city council Monday night of the ordinance re-creating the office of captain of police, the petition seeking to submit ordinance No. 1717 to a referendum vote at the August primaries, was withdrawn Tuesday.

DELEGATES TO EAGLES' MEET

Fifty Members from East Liverpool Will Go to Elyria Session.

More than 50 members of East Liverpool Aerie No. 457, F. O. Eagles will attend the state aerie meet which convenes Monday morning at Elyria.

W. M. Carey, deputy grand president, Tuesday received an appointment as member of the credentials committee at the state conclave. He will attend a preliminary meeting of the credentials committee Sunday afternoon.

Memorial services in charge of the Hamilton Aerie to be held in an Elyria theatre Sunday night will formally open the convention. The East Liverpool degree team will exemplify the degree work at one of the ceremonies.

A large class will be initiated here Thursday night. The ceremony will mark the formal conclusion of the summer membership campaign. The recently increased initiation rates go into effect after Thursday. Applications for this week's class will be received up to Thursday night.

To meet a threatened financial stringency in public school affairs, the East Liverpool board of education will present a three-mill tax levy to electors of the school district at the August primaries. It was announced Tuesday.

A petition seeking to make the tax levy proposal an issue at the approaching primaries has already been filed with J. S. Hilbert, chief deputy of the county board of elections. The levy would extend over a period of five years.

Based upon an estimated property valuation of $26,500,000 within the city school district, the proposed tax levy would give the board of education approximately $79,500 for general school purposes.

The board of education, despite efforts to economize in all departments, is virtually "treading upon its uppers," it was pointed out Tuesday. Prevailing high cost of school essentials has affected the administration of school affairs just as it has other taxing districts of the state. Proposed increase in the teachers' salary schedule will materially augment the monthly payroll of the city schools with no channel of financial relief open save that of an additional tax levy, school authorities explain.

BROKER'S WIFE AND CHAUFFEUR SHOT TO DEATH ON MOTOR ROAD

Double Tragedy Near Stonington, Conn., Shocks Fashionable Summer Colony.

FIND BODIES IN ROAD

Mrs. Arthur De Cordova and Bernard Geissler are Victims.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 13.—The tragic death by shooting of Mrs. Arthur De Cordova, wife of a New York broker, and her chauffeur, Bernard Geissler, on a lonely motor road near Stonington early today, has shocked the residents of the fashionable summer colony of New Yorkers here and has given the authorities one of the most baffling crimes they have had to solve in years.

Their bodies sprawled in the road, Mrs. De Cordova and the chauffeur were found by James F. Brown, a farmer of North Stonington. Mrs. De Cordova was dead. Geissler was still alive but unconscious. He was rushed to a hospital here, but died early this morning without regaining consciousness.

Between the bodies when found lay an army pistol. Mrs. De Cordova had been shot through the heart and apparently had died instantly. Geissler's body was hanging across a fence with bullet wounds in his head.

Mrs. De Cordova and Geissler are said to have left Griswold, near here, yesterday afternoon in a three-passenger sports model car. The De Cordovas came to Griswold on July 1.

Arthur De Cordova, the husband, returned to New York yesterday.

Presidential and Vice Presidential Candidates Will Be Nominated.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED

Coalition of Various Organizations Follows Two Days of Negotiating.

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
CHICAGO, July 13.—After two days of dicker and negotiating between the minor political parties now in Chicago the way was cleared here shortly before noon for the birth of a united third party probably tonight.

A joint convention embracing the Committee of Forty-Eight, the American Labor party, the Single Tax party and representatives of the Non-Partisan League and smaller organizations probably will be held tonight at which candidates for president and vice president will be nominated and a platform adopted.

Agreement to meet in a joint convention was made with the name of the new party and the platform still in doubt. These will be settled later.

The instrument through which the amalgamation as effected was found after a morning of dissension during which it appeared several times that the coalition was doomed to failure.

The Labor party at its convention in Carmain's hall took the bull by the horns finally and voted to go ahead and nominate a candidate for president at 8:30 o'clock tonight regardless of everything. Then at the Morrison hotel, where the convention of the Forty-Eighters was in progress, H. F. Wilkins, of Maryland, as chairman of the committee on political procedure, brought in report stating:

"The Labor party of the United States and the Committee of Forty-Eight shall unite in a new political party."

Put to a vote, Wilkins' report was unanimously adopted, and a committee

LA FOLLETTE TICKET CHOICE

Wisconsin Senator is Favorite for Third Party Nomination.

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS.
CHICAGO, July 13.—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin will be the third party's nominee for the presidency, probably by acclamation, if there is a third party.

Such was the feeling here today as various political conventions got under way impatient for the reports of their numerous committees and sub-committees charged with the task of trying to iron out their party differences and pave the way for everybody to get together under one big roof in one big convention to start on its way one big party.

If it is not La Follette—that is it the senator from Wisconsin will not accept the nomination, it may be Henry Ford, the auto king. He will not refuse to run, if drafted, it was stated here today.

The automobile manufacturer, it was understood, has made no direct reply to the unofficial queries sent out from the conventions here, but Charles H. Hoffman of Michigan was informed by Ford's secretary, speaking for Ford that, while the latter was in no way to be considered a candidate for any office whatever, if in spite of himself he should be nominated, he would feel obligated to accept and run as a matter of public duty.

Senator La Follette, however, for the present looks well nigh a certainty providing the two big conventions—the Committee of Forty-Eight and Labor party—can enter into a real combine and gather about them the other advanced parties: The Non-Partisan League, the American Constitutional party, the Single Tax party, the American party of Texas, World War Veterans, Private Soldiers' and Sailors' league and so on.

G.O.P. NOMINEE WRITES SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Calls Off Conferences In Order to Devote Time to Work.

LONGWORTH IS VISITOR

Late Col. Roosevelt's Son-In-Law and Wife Visit Harding.

By A. O. HAYWARD.

MARION, O., July 13.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee, conferred this morning with Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, and then went into retirement to work uninterruptedly on his acceptance speech.

The senator announced that he could give no more time to conferences until after he has completed the draft of his speech which he is preparing with the greatest care. All his time yesterday was devoted to conferences with his many callers.

Congressman Longworth and Mrs. Longworth, who was Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the late Col. Roosevelt, were house guests of Senator and Mrs. Harding last night. The discussion between the senator and Nick Longworth covered national as well as Ohio state politics. Longworth is a candidate for re-election to congress. If elected he is expected to be a candidate for the speakership of the national house of representatives.

Raymond Robbins of Chicago, and Walter F. Brown, of Ohio, leaders in the "Bull Moose" campaign of 1916 and prominent Progressives, were in conference with Senator Harding throughout the afternoon yesterday. Robbins discussed with the senator labor and progressive legislation.

"We had a satisfactory conference," he said at its conclusion. "I will support the Republican ticket and take the stump if it is asked. The senator and I are in substantial agreement. From what I hear the overwhelming number of Progressives will go to the Republican ticket. No one can control the labor vote as a mass. It cannot be controlled by a third party ticket. We must make good on liberty under law. There is a class cleavage in Europe. There is a class seeking to make good in this country. The next four years will determine whether we shall go forward with our free institutions, free religion, free speech and free economic conditions, or whether we shall go backward."

John R. Rathen, the Providence editor, who was a caller on the senator, approved the front porch campaign. (Continued on Page Two)

Prisoner, Believed to Have Been Implicated in Theft of $15,000 Worth of Government Securities, Fails to Furnish Bond.

ARRESTED NEAR DALLAS BY FEDERAL AGENTS

J. F. Johnston, Cashier of New Waterford Bank, Called to Texas to Identify Alleged Stolen Securities.

Believed to have been one of a gang of yeggs who entered the New Waterford Savings and Banking company on the night of September 25 and escaped with $15,000 worth of government securities, a man giving his name as Ed. L. Flanigan was being held Tuesday at Fort Worth, Tex., in default of $15,000 bond following his arraignment in the U. S. district court on a charge of forging and uttering forged U. S. securities.

Flanigan was arrested in a small town about 75 miles from Dallas, Tex., by U. S. secret service agents after several weeks' chase through Louisiana and southern Texas. He is alleged to have negotiated a loan of $17,000 from a Shreveport, La., bank, leaving $22,000 worth of stolen government bonds as collateral security.

The man appeared before the officials of a Shreveport bank about the middle of last October and sought to make a loan upon the strength of the bonds. Bankers detected evidence of sure on the bonds and declined to make the loan. They later notified secret service agents of the incident.

In the meantime, Flanigan succeeded in negotiating a loan and disappeared, it is claimed. His arrest followed a few weeks later.

Officials of the bank where the $17,000 loan was made identified Flanigan as the possessor of the bonds. A part of the securities, it is alleged, were stolen from a bank at Reedy, W. Va., and the balance from the New Waterford bank. J. F. Johnston, cashier of the New Waterford bank was notified of the man's capture and went to Texas to identify the securities.

Flanigan was still in the U. S. federal prison at Fort Worth, Tex., awaiting extradition to Shreveport, La., when Mr. Johnston left for home. He will be arraigned in the U. S. Court in Louisiana, Mr. Johnston was told.

HARDING GETS CAMPAIGN FUND CONTRIBUTION FROM BOY HERE

Russell Heddleston, Jr., Sends $5 Bill to G. O. P. Nominee.

REPLY FROM SENATOR

Contribution Will Be Forwarded to Chairman Will R. Hays.

If U. S. Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, is sent to the White House at the November general election, an 11-year-old East Liverpool boy will share the feeling of elation over the victory of the Republican party standard bearer.

In a letter just received at Harding's headquarters at Marion, Russell Heddleston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Heddleston, West Fifth street, enclosed a self-earned $5 bill for Harding's campaign fund. The lad wrote:

"I want to help elect you president. I am 11 years old and of course can't vote. How I wish I could."

"My sisters addressed cards with your picture on, when I was little boy. Now I want to do something for you. I hope you will be the next president."

On reading the letter, Senator Harding dictated an immediate reply, as follows:

"I am so pleased to have your letter, with a contribution to the Republican campaign and your very enthusiastic tender of help in carrying on the campaign."

"It pleased me to have you recall the activity in your home when I was a candidate for the United States Senate and it encourages me immensely to know you are going to give of your youthful energy and enthusiasm to elect me to the presidency of the United States."

"I am sending your contribution to Chairman Hays and I shall be disappointed if he does not make a grateful acknowledgement. Meanwhile, you must know of my very sincere appreciation and the pleasure your letter afforded me. With best wishes I am, very sincerely yours,

"WARREN G. HARDING."

WOMAN FINED $300 ON PROHIBITION COUNT

Pleading guilty to a charge of violating the city prohibition enforcement ordinance, Mrs. Amamuri Bolyons, Mapletree street, East End, was fined $300 when arraigned before Mayor J. S. Wilson Tuesday afternoon. The fine was paid and the woman released.

Analysis of a sample of "Dago Red" confiscated by Chief Hugh McDermott and Patrolman C. D. Hissam in a raid on Mrs. Bolyons' residence Saturday night, revealed an alcoholic content of over 10 per cent. Eight barrels of the concoction will be destroyed by the police.

The woman was given the maximum fine under the city ordinance.

Levi G. Davis of Butler, Pa., well known here, was killed and two companions, Thomas Coleman and John Smith, also of Butler, were injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a trolley car in Pittsburg, Pa., according to word received here Tuesday.

The party was en route to Akron when the accident occurred. The three were rushed to the City hospital in Pittsburg following the accident. Coleman and Smith escaped with painful injuries.

Davis' body was removed to the home of his parents at 125 Fifth avenue, Butler, Pa.

The announcement came after the second of two long distance telephone

REFERENDUM PETITION IS WITHDRAWN TODAY

Following the enactment by city council Monday night of the ordinance re-creating the office of captain of police, the petition seeking to submit ordinance No. 1717 to a referendum vote at the August primaries, was withdrawn Tuesday.

The petition, which carried nearly 550 signatures, was filed to force the retention of the office of police captain in the face of the ordinance passed by city council over Mayor J. S. Wilson's veto in April abolishing the captaincy.

W. M. Carey, deputy grand president, Tuesday received an appointment as member of the credentials committee at the state conclave. He will attend a preliminary meeting of the credentials committee Sunday afternoon.

Memorial services in charge of the Hamilton Aerie to be held in an Elyria theatre Sunday night will formally open the convention. The East Liverpool doge team will exemplify the degree work at one of the ceremonies.

A large class will be initiated here Thursday night. The ceremony will mark the formal conclusion of the summer membership campaign. The recently increased initiation rates go into effect after Thursday. Applications for this week's class will be received up to Thursday night.

JESSE FISHER PURCHASES FAST DRIVING COLT

Jesse Fisher, local baker, has purchased a fast driving colt, "Walter Sterling," from E. D. Barry of Cleveland, according to word from the Forest City today.

The colt is rated as one of the most promising two-year-old futurity candidates in this section and on the North Randall track recently made a mile in 2:15 1/2.

Peter Mount, having a record of 2:14 1/4, which was entered in a number of the county fair race meets in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania last fall, has been sold by Fisher to Leo McAllister of Akron.

To meet a threatened financial stringency in public school affairs, the East Liverpool board of education will present a three-mill tax levy to electors of the school district at the August primaries, it was announced Tuesday.

A petition seeking to make the tax levy proposal an issue at the approaching primaries has already been filed with J. S. Hilbert, chief deputy of the county board of elections. The levy would extend over a period of five years.

Based upon an estimated property valuation of $26,500,000 within the city school district, the proposed tax levy would give the board of education approximately $79,500 for general school purposes.

The board of education, despite efforts to economize in all departments, is virtually "treading upon its uppers," it was pointed out Tuesday.

Prevailing high cost of school essentials has affected the administration of school affairs just as it has other taxing districts of the state. Proposed increase will materially augment the monthly payroll of the city schools with no channel of financial relief open save that of an additional tax levy, school authorities explain.

"Will you please permit me to enter with you and your neighbors into the spirit of happiness occasioned by the honor which has come to Mr. Roosevelt. The provincial view of him has grown from the affection which he won in his boyhood and held throughout the years. The national view is that of the man stalwart, courageous, progressive. He will be a great help in the contest."

BROKER'S WIFE AND CHAUFFEUR SHOT TO DEATH ON MOTOR ROAD

Double Tragedy Near Stonington, Conn., Shocks Fashionable Summer Colony.

FIND BODIES IN ROAD

Mrs. Arthur De Cordova and Bernard Geissler are Victims.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 13.—The tragic death by shooting of Mrs. Arthur De Cordova, wife of a New York broker, and her chauffeur, Bernard Geissler, on a lonely motor road near Stonington early today, has shocked the residents of the fashionable summer colony of New Yorkers here and has given the authorities one of the most baffling crimes they have had to solve in years.

Their bodies sprawled in the road, Mrs. De Cordova and the chauffeur were found by James F. Brown, a farmer of North Stonington. Mrs. De Cordova was dead. Geissler was still alive but unconscious. He was rushed to a hospital here, but died early this morning without regaining consciousness.

Between the bodies when found lay an army pistol. Mrs. De Cordova had been shot through the heart and apparently had died instantly. Geissler's body was hanging across a fence with bullet wounds in his head.

Mrs. De Cordova and Geissler are said to have left Griswold, near here, yesterday afternoon in a three-passenger sports model car. The De Cordovas came to Griswold on July 1.

Arthur De Cordova, the husband, returned to New York yesterday.

Last night Brown, the farmer, heard several shots and upon investigating found the bodies of Mrs. De Cordova and the chauffeur.

Geissler, who was 31 years old and had a wife in New York, had been in the employ of the De Cordovas for five years. Relatives and friends of

CONNELL FOR PROSECUTOR

"DON'T FORGET"

G. O. P. NOMINEE

Commenting on a statement by Governor Cox, the Democratic nominee, that if elected he would put a real farmer at the head of the department of agriculture, Senator Harding observed that was one reform in government the Republican party would not have to make. "For 16 years, under three Republican administrations, we had as secretary of agriculture James Wilson, of Iowa, a real farmer from a real farm. Had the great department been maintained and carried forward under the Republican ideals of usefulness, half our problems of high cost of living would have been solved for us in advance. The Republican party will go on developing the department for the service of real farms and farmers."

Senator Harding was disappointed that Governor Clement, of Vermont, had decided that he could not convene the Vermont legislature in extraordinary session to ratify the suffrage amendment. "I had hoped that he would do it," said the senator.

NEW CRISIS IN SPA MEETING

Germans Reject Allies' Proposal for Coal Deliveries to France.

By NEWTON C. PARKE.

SPA, Belgium, July 13.—A new crisis developed in the conference of allied and German statesmen this afternoon when the Germans rejected the allies' compromise proposal for coal deliveries to France. A break in the conference is threatened tonight or tomorrow.

SPA, Belgium, July 13.—An attack upon members of the German delegation attending the Spa conference was averted today when the Teutons carried out a strategic retreat and sped away in motor cars. The trouble began when a Belgian officer, whose treatment in a German prison camp during the war still rankled in his mind, got into an argument with a German attached to the Teuton delegation. The Belgian finally struck the German with his fist. About a score of Germans who had come into Spa from the German headquarters on the outskirts of Spa interfered. A crowd gathered and was menacing the Germans with attack when the latter fled down a side street to their waiting motor cars and disappeared.

No arrests were made, nor did the authorities seek the names of those involved.

BRYAN STAND ON TICKET IS WORRYING COX

Nebraskan's Attitude is Discussed at Conference
With Roosevelt.

SENT NO WORD TO COX

Delegates, on Way Home from Frisco, Stop At Columbus.

BY ALBERT F. BAENZIGER

COLUMBUS, July 13.—The question of whether William Jennings Bryan and his following will ultimately support the Democratic ticket was the one subject that occupied most of the attention in the conferences held here yesterday between Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and Judge Timothy T. Ansberry, of Washington, Governor Cox's political adviser.

It was learned that the commoner sent a personal message of well wishes to the vice presidential candidate through a former secretary, telling him he was glad he received the nomination. No word has yet been received from him by Governor Cox. Secretary Roosevelt admitted getting the message but refused to comment on its political significance. The candidates expressed themselves as particularly pleased with the harmony outlook in the party. The telegrams of congratulations from Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, who was unseated in the convention, and Thomas Watson, of Georgia, assure the support of these factions and if Mr. Bryan and his followers could be whipped into line a united Democracy would start the campaign.

For the first time Governor Cox showed an interest in the third party movement in Chicago. He asked if the balloting would commence today and who the possible candidates would be. His main point of interest was disclosed by later questions as to whether it was believed the third party would be supported by the Non-Partisan League. Comment was offered on the fact that Chairman Henry McCurdy was formerly an official of the league and because of his nomination would be able to get this following.

The league of nations will be the dominating issue of the campaign, according to Secretary Roosevelt. He stated that during his return trip he positively learned the west was strong for the league, and that the Republican mayor of Glenwood Springs, Colo., publicly announced he would support the Democratic ticket because he feared a Republican victory would mean no league at all which our only hope is preventing future wars.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, prominent suffrage leader of New York and McAdoo supported in the convention, spent considerable time with the candidates here yesterday and it is expected she will take an active part on an executive committee in the campaign.

Ed. H. Moore, Governor Cox's convention manager is suffering from a nervous breakdown in San Francisco. A message to the candidate from W. Marsh stated Mr. Moore was under the care of a nurse and no visitors were permitted to see him. Governor Cox immediately dispatched word of consolation, asking to be kept closely advised as to his condition. Mr. Moore is looked upon as the next chairman of the Democratic national committee.

The governor announced he expected to be kept busy all day today taking care of the accumulation of office business at the state house. Returning delegates from San Francisco are making Columbus their mecca on the way home and the candidate tries to give each a little time.

afternoon and was promised that an investigation would be made.

Further details of the incident revealed that Herr Stockblosser, correspondent of the official Wolff agency, of Germany, was injured in the head. The crowd of Germans that had to flee included Dr. Dernburg, one of the best known publicists in Germany and Herr von Eckhardt, a prominent Hamburg editor.

CONNELL FOR PROSECUTOR

"DON'T FORGET"

G. O. P. NOMINEE

Commenting on a statement by Governor Cox, the Democratic nominee, that if elected he would put a real farmer at the head of the department of agriculture, Senator Harding observed that was one reform in government the Republican party would not have to make. "For 16 years, under three Republican administrations, we had as secretary of agriculture James Wilson, of Iowa, a real farmer from a real farm. Had the great department been maintained and carried forward under the Republican ideals of usefulness, half our problems of high cost of living would have been solved for us in advance. The Republican party will go on developing the department for the service of real farms and farmers."

Senator Harding was disappointed that Governor Clement, of Vermont, had decided that he could not convene the Vermont legislature in extraordinary session to ratify the suffrage amendment. "I had hoped that he would do it," said the senator.

NEW CRISIS IN SPA MEETING

Germans Reject Allies' Proposal for Coal Deliveries to France.

By NEWTON C. PARKE.

SPA, Belgium, July 13.—A new crisis developed in the conference of allied and German statesmen this afternoon when the Germans rejected the allies' compromise proposal for coal deliveries to France. A break in the conference is threatened tonight or tomorrow.

SPA, Belgium, July 13.—An attack upon members of the German delegation attending the Spa conference was averted today when the Teutons carried out a strategic retreat and sped away in motor cars. The trouble began when a Belgian officer, whose treatment in a German prison camp during the war still rankled in his mind, got into an argument with a German attached to the Teuton delegation. The Belgian finally struck the German with his fist. About a score of Germans who had come into Spa from the German headquarters on the outskirts of Spa interfered. A crowd gathered and was menacing the Germans with attack when the latter fled down a side street to their waiting motor cars and disappeared.

No arrests were made nor did the authorities seek the names of those involved.

Chancellor Fehrenbach, head of the German delegation, made formal protest to the Belgian government this

BRYAN STAND ON TICKET IS WORRYING COX

Nebraskan's Attitude is Discussed at Conference With Roosevelt.

SENT NO WORD TO COX

Delegates, on Way Home from Frisco, Stop At Columbus.

By ALBERT F. BAENZIGER

COLUMBUS, July 13.—The question of whether William Jennings Bryan and his following will ultimately support the Democratic ticket was the one subject that occupied most of the attention in the conferences held here yesterday between Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and Judge Timothy T. Ansberry, of Washington, Governor Cox's political adviser.

It was learned that the commoner sent a personal message of well-wishes to the vice presidential candidate through a former secretary, telling him he was glad he received the nomination. No word has yet been received from him by Governor Cox. Secretary Roosevelt admitted getting the message but refused to comment on its political significance. The candidates expressed themselves as particularly pleased with the harmony outlook in the party. The telegrams of congratulations from Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, who was unseated in the convention, and Thomas Watson, of Georgia, assure the support of these factions and if Mr. Bryan and his followers could be whipped into line a United Democracy would start the campaign.

"In the event," continued the report, "that the convention of the Labor party and the Committee of Forty Eight each formally accept the report of this joint committee the said conventions shall meet in joint session at 2 p. m. Tuesday, July 13, at Carmen's hall, which joint session shall represent the first session of the convention of the new party. In this and succeeding sessions before adjournment of this convention shall take such action as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this report and any such further action as it may deem in the interest of the new party; the intent of this provision is to make the combined convention the fully empowered national convention of the new party.

3.—That relating to the nationalization of mines.

tee was immediately appointed to notify the Labor wing of the action and to arrange the details. The committee was termed "the midwife."

The Wilkie report was in the form of a resolution which was prepared for the action of both conventions.

Further provided:

"The new party's organization shall confine its activities during 1920 to the election of a president, vice president and members of both houses of congress.

The basis for control of the new party shall be a national committee composed of three members from each state, at least one of whom shall be a woman. This national committee shall select an executive committee of nine, which committee is to have charge of the 1920 campaign.

The New Idea Laxative that Never Wears Out—it's Different.

How Much is a Million?

The moment you mention a million dollars to some people, they are antagonistic.

They imagine that a million dollars represents a tremendous part of the national wealth.

Instead it represents only one penny for each inhabitant of our country.

Swift & Company last year had an output of 5,500,000,000 pounds. A profit of one cent per pound would have resulted in $55,000,000.

The actual net profit was $14,000,000 or one-fourth of what we would have made had the profit been at the rate of 1 cent a pound.

An average profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound indicates a highly competitive condition in the industry and also proves our assertion that packer profits have practically no effect on prices.

FATE OF 21,000,000 VOTES.

Whether 21,000,000 American women may exercise the right of suffrage in the presidential election next November is expected to be determined today, when the District of Columbia supreme court hears an application for an injunction to restrain the effectiveness of the nineteenth amendment, which still lacks favorable action by one state legislature in order to become a law. If the court grants the injunction, practically all hope for women going to the polls in the national election will be lost, for there will be no chance of setting the injunction aside before November 2.

The injunction, if granted, will restrain Secretary of State Colby from declaring the federal amendment ratified by the required three-fourths of the states providing another legislature, making 36 in all, expresses itself in favor of votes for women before election day. The decision, irrespective of whether it is favorable or unfavorable to the suffrage cause, will be appealed. However, a victory for the anti-suffragists today would mean the amendment would be held in abeyance until after the November election, for the supreme court will recess on October 15. So many cases have been assigned for argument as to cause a delay of several months in reaching an appeal on the suffrage dispute.

Eight reasons for an injunction have been set forth by the anti-suffragists. But one is regarded as dangerous by the suffrage leaders. It is the contention that the West Virginia ratification, which followed a spectacular fight in which an airplane was used to carry a state senator from a western state to Charleston to enable him to vote for the amendment, is invalid. It is maintained the legislature acted illegally in ejecting Senator Montgomery from his seat by a majority vote because he no longer resided in his district. It is set forth that the West Virginia constitution expressly provides for ejection only by two-thirds vote.

And while the issuance of the injunction would prevent effectiveness of the Susan B. Anthony amendment although the thirty-sixth state should ratify before November, at least 11,000,000 of the 21,000,000 women affected by such a ruling would still have the right to vote by reason of the fact that they live in states which have given presidential suffrage to women by state law.

Ohio women are especially interested in the supreme court case, for, although the Buckeye state has enacted the Reynolds presidential suffrage measure, a referendum has delayed its effectiveness until after November. And women in this state will not go to the polls on presidential election day unless the suffragists win the court fight in the District of Columbia and another state ratifies the federal amendment.

LANDLORDS AND CHILDREN.

A woman disgusted with landlords who refuse to rent their property to families with children writes to the daily papers of her town begging for a law to make such refusal illegal. In return she would have the parents sign an agreement to pay for any "unreasonable damage" done to the property by their children.

It is doubtful whether such a law should or could be passed, and any such statute would lead to endless litigation, making things worse, if possible, than they are now.

What is needed is not so much compulsory laws as better home-owning schemes, which will permit the average father of the average family to own his own home; and where home ownership is impractical, a better understanding on the part of landlords as to the true service which any man renders to his country when he makes it possible for coming citizens to be brought up in decent surroundings. Every man who makes the world a better place in which to bring up children gives to the nation. Every one who withholds such help when he could give it sows the seed of anarchy and fosters the deterioration of the race.

As for the "unreasonable damage," that is a delicate question, difficult of decision. But with a landlord who believed in families, and a family whose children were brought up to decent respect for all property, it seems as if almost anything might be adjusted.

DAILY NEW SONG.

Citizens of Madison, Wis., learned a song a day recently when members of the community music class at the state university carried on a strenuous campaign to that end. Daily newspapers printed the words of each song as it day came. Then the students went forth into theaters, stores and even homes, and taught the song. This went on for 28 days, at the end of which period a large proportion of the population of the city had actually added 28 new songs to its repertoire.

Certainly learning new songs never hurt anybody. Community singing, too, has been shown again and again to be a wholesome recreation for the group indulging in it.

There is yet another beneficial phase of this almost compulsory song learning. No doubt those 28 songs are of a better type than the catchy, popular songs which go the rounds, and which, during their brief stay in any community, are sung and played without ceasing, to the mental distraction and spiritual despair of half the population. With such a large selection of songs freshly in mind, most popular song sufferers should escape their usual anguish. Madison is to be envied and emulated for many reasons.

France did honor to our Independence Day, but it hasn't yet become the world-holiday that Americans were prophesying a year or two ago.

In spite of the horoscopes, every day's a lucky day for the man who believes in himself.

There seems to be something uncanny about the sugar situation.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 13.—

I was in a department store,

Where there was a sale,

And I was watching

The pretty salesgirls,

As husbands will,

And it got so hot,

That I took off my hat,

And it wasn't long

Before a woman stopped

In front of me,

And asked about what you call me,

And I put on my hat,

And she saw her mistake,

And made her apologies,

And I walked across the aisle.

And stood there,

And right beside me,

Was a lady's fur muff,

And I began to stroke it,

And suddenly the darn thing

Jumped up and bit me.

And it proved to be a dog

And the owner of it

Rushed up and muttered,

Something about the big brute,

And then snatched it away,

And I walked back,

To the notion counter,

And sat down in a chair

And two young girls,

Out hunting bargains,

Came walking by.

And one looked at me,

And began to giggle,

And turned to the other

And said: "He looks like,

He's more than 20 per cent off."

And everywhere I went,

I seemed to be in the way,

So I went out in front,

And stood around the curb,

Talking to the carriage man,

And he used to live in Ohio,

And it seems he was

In a coal mine explosion,

And that was what made him

Want to do simple work.

That he wouldn't be,

Carried away with,

And he took such a liking to me,

That before I knew it,

He had me holding a horse.

When my wife came out,

To take me home.

POLICE APPEAL FOR MORE PAY TURNED DOWN

City Facing Shortage of Fund, Council Reports.

ONE FUND $3,000 SHORT

Solons Enact Measure, Recreating Office of Police Captain.

With a deficit of approximately $3,000 in the safety department alone despite the almost total depletion of the general fund, East Liverpool is facing a real financial stranglehold, it is said.

In the face of the existing shortage in available funds, the request of the city police department for a flat $25 per month increase in wages cannot be complied with at this time, city council told a committee from the police department.

Council as a whole favors the police raise, the police committee was told, but circumstances will not permit any alteration in the police scale. Patrolmen William Lister and Norman McFarland presented the police request at Monday night's caucus.

More than $8,000 was drawn out of the general fund to meet shortages in other funds when the appropriations for the fast half of the present year were made, it was pointed out. This still leaves a shortage of $3,000 for general operating expenses in the safety department.

An ordinance repealing ordinance No. 1717 and re-creating the office of captain of police in the city police department was passed under suspension of rules Monday night. The new measure provides for a chief of police, captain of police and eight patrolmen.

Taking the stand that it would be inconsistent to spend any money to improve a system that it seeks to abandon, the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company has declined to make any change in the Pleasant Heights line to assist the city in the improvement of Lisbon street, it was reported to city council Monday night.

The traction company was asked to move its tracks to one side of the street in order that the proposed paving could be laid. When it declined to do this, the service director and city engineer requested that new rails be laid so that the street could be paved between the tracks. This request was also refused, it is said.

The action of the traction company may delay progress on Lisbon street until unfavorable weather sets in, the city engineer told city council. Rather than abandon the improvement this year, city council instructed the city solicitor to take immediate steps to force the traction company to lay new tracking on the Pleasant Heights line so that the paving work can proceed.

Alleged failure of the assistant clerk to serve notices on property owners along Fawcett street has delayed legislation in the installation of a proposed sanitary sewer along the street. E. E. Spivey, who headed a delegation of interested property owners, was told Monday night. Legislation on the project will be framed for submission at the next meeting, the delegation was promised.

Improvement of sewage facilities in Daisy alley, Morton street, Riley avenue and Carson alley was recommended by a committee of city council following an investigation of conditions along the streets which were called to the attention of city council by the board of health.

City council with the service director and city engineer, will view property under dispute along Harvey avenue and Elizabeth street, East End, to determine whether it has been assessed at its proper valuation. Property owners along the two streets have declined to pay their share of the street improvement on the two streets, declaring that their property has been over-assessed.

Here are the appropriations for the various departments for the final half of the fiscal year ending December 31, 1920:

General fund, $6,651; safety department, $21,914.35; public health, $2,650; public service, $20,717; Thompson park, $525; water works department, $50,012.50; library fund, $2,300; City hospital, $3,100; grand total, $107,809.85.

Akron—Six-year-old Gust Petrovich narrowly escaped death here when, in sight of his father, several little children and scores of other persons at the union station, the lad was dragged under a passenger train by air suction, due to the rapid approach of the train as it entered the station.

After three coaches had passed over the boy, who had remained in the center of the track, he was lifted off the track. He received only a few bruises and cuts about his back.

Here are the appropriations for the various departments for the final half of the fiscal year ending December 31, 1920:

General fund, $6,591; safety department, $21,914.35; public health, $2,650; public service, $20,717; Thompson park, $525; water works department, $50,012.50; library fund, $2,300; City hospital, $3,100; grand total, $107,809.85.

Akron—Six-year-old Gust Petrovich narrowly escaped death here when, in sight of his father, several little children and scores of other persons at the union station, the lad was dragged under a passenger train by air suction, due to the rapid approach of the train as it entered the station.

After three coaches had passed over the boy, who had remained in the center of the track, he was lifted off the track. He received only a few bruises and cuts about his back.

FATE OF 21,000,000 VOTES.

Whether 21,000,000 American women may exercise the right of suffrage in the presidential election next November is expected to be determined today, when the District of Columbia supreme court hears an application for an injunction to restrain the effectiveness of the nineteenth amendment, which still lacks favorable action by one state legislature in order to become a law. If the court grants the injunction, practically all hope for women going to the polls in the national election will be lost, for there will be no chance of settling the injunction aside before November 2.

The injunction, if granted, will restrain Secretary of State Colby from declaring the federal amendment ratified by the required three-fourths of the states providing another legislature, making 36 in all, expresses itself in favor of votes for women before election day. The decision, irrespective of whether it is favorable or unfavorable to the suffrage cause, will be appealed. However, a victory for the anti-suffragists today would mean the amendment would be held in abeyance until after the November election, for the supreme court will recess on October 15. So many cases have been assigned for argument as to cause a delay of several months in reaching an appeal on the suffrage dispute.

Eight reasons for an injunction have been set forth by the anti-suffragists. But one is regarded as dangerous by the suffrage leaders. It is the contention that the West Virginia ratification, which followed a spectacular fight in which an airplane was used to carry a state senator from a western state to Charleston to enable him to vote for the amendment, is invalid. It is maintained the legislature acted illegally in ejecting Senator Montgomery from his seat by a majority vote because he no longer resided in his district. It is set forth that the West Virginia constitution expressly provides for ejection only by two-thirds vote.

And while the issuance of the injunction would prevent effectiveness of the Susan B. Anthony amendment although the thirty-sixth state should ratify before November, at least 11,000,000 of the 21,000,000 women affected by such a ruling would still have the right to vote by reason of the fact that they live in states which have given presidential suffrage to women by state law.

Ohio women are especially interested in the supreme court case, for, although the Buckeye state has enacted the Reynolds presidential suffrage measure, a referendum has delayed its effectiveness until after November. And women in this state will not go to the polls on presidential election day unless the suffragists win the court fight in the District of Columbia and another state ratifies the federal amendment.

LANDLORDS AND CHILDREN.

A woman disgusted with landlords who refuse to rent their property to families with children writes to the daily papers of her town begging for a law to make such refusal illegal. In return she would have the parents sign an agreement to pay for any "unreasonable damage" done to the property by their children.

It is doubtful whether such a law should or could be passed, and any such statute would lead to endless litigation, making things worse, if possible, than they are now.

What is needed is not so much compulsory laws as better home-owning schemes, which will permit the average father of the average family to own his own home; and where home ownership is impractical, a better understanding on the part of landlords as to the true service which any man renders to his country when he makes it possible for coming citizens to be brought up in decent surroundings. Every man who makes the world a better place in which to bring up children gives to the nation. Every one who withholds such help when he could give it sows the seed of anarchy and fosters the deterioration of the race.

As for the "unreasonable damage," that is a delicate question, difficult of decision. But with a landlord who believed in families, and a family whose children were brought up to decent respect for all property, it seems as if almost anything might be adjusted.

DAILY NEW SONG.

Citizens of Madison, Wis., learned a song a day recently when members of the community music class at the state university carried on a strenuous campaign to that end. Daily newspapers printed the words of each song as its day came. Then the students went forth into theaters, stores and even homes, and taught the song. This went on for 28 days, at the end of which period a large proportion of the population of the city had actually added 28 new songs to its repertoire.

Certainly learning new songs never hurt anybody. Community singing, too, has been shown again and again to be a wholesome recreation for the group indulging in it.

There is yet another beneficial phase of this almost compulsory song learning. No doubt those 28 songs are of a better type than the catchy, popular songs which go the rounds, and which, during their brief stay in any community, are sung and played without ceasing, to the mental distraction and spiritual despair of half the population. With such a large selection of songs freshly in mind, most popular song sufferers should escape their usual anguish. Madison is to be envied and emulated for many reasons.

France did honor to our Independence Day, but it hasn't yet become the world-holiday that Americans were prophesying a year or two ago.

In spite of the horoscopes, every day's a lucky day for the man who believes in himself.

There seems to be something uncanny about the sugar situation.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 13.—

I was in a department store,

Where there was a sale.

And I was watching

The pretty salesgirls,

As husbands will.

And it got so hot,

That I took off my hat,

And it wasn't long

Before a woman stopped

In front of me,

And asked about what you call me.

And I put on my hat,

And she saw her mistake,

And made her apologies,

And I walked across the aisle.

And stood there.

And right beside me,

Was a lady's fur muff,

And I began to stroke it,

And suddenly the darn thing

Jumped up and bit me.

And it proved to be a dog

And the owner of it

Rushed up and muttered,

Something about the big brute,

And then snatched it away,

And I walked back,

To the notion counter,

And sat down in a chair

And two young girls,

Out hunting bargains,

Came walking by.

And one looked at me,

And began to giggle,

And turned to the other

And said: "He looks like,

He's more than 20 per cent off."

And everywhere I went,

I seemed to be in the way,

So I went out in front,

And stood around the curb,

Talking to the carriage man,

And he used to live in Ohio,

And it seems he was

In a coal mine explosion,

And that was what made him

Want to do simple work.

That he wouldn't be,

Carried away with,

And he took such a liking to me,

That before I knew it,

He had me holding a horse.

When my wife came out,

To take me home.

POLICE APPEAL FOR MORE PAY TURNED DOWN

City Facing Shortage of Fund, Council Re- ports.

ONE FUND $3,000 SHORT

Solons Enact Measure, Recre- ating Office of Police Captain.

With a deficit of approximately $3,000 in the safety department alone, despite the almost total depletion of the general fund, East Liverpool is facing a real financial stringency, it was revealed at the regular meeting of city council Monday night.

In the face of the existing shortage in available funds, the request of the city police department for a flat $25 per month increase in wages cannot be complied with at this time, city council told a committee from the police department. Council at a whole favors the police raise, the police committee was told, but circumstances will not permit any alteration in the police scale. Patrolmen William Lister and Norman McFarland presented the police request at Monday night's caucus.

More than $8,000 was drawn out of the general fund to meet shortages in other funds when the appropriations for the last half of the present year were made, it was pointed out. This still leaves a shortage of $3,000 for general operating expenses in the safety department.

An ordinance repealing ordinance No. 1717 and re-creating the office of captain of police in the city police department was passed under suspension of rules Monday night. The new measure provides for a chief of police, captain of police and eight patrolmen.

Taking the stand that it would be inconsistent to spend any money to improve a system that it seeks to abandon, the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company has declined to make any change in the Pleasant Heights line to assist the city in the improvement of Lisbon street. It was reported to city council Monday night.

The traction company was asked to move its tracks to one side of the street in order that the proposed paving could be laid. When it declined to do this, the service director and city engineer requested that new rails be laid so that the street could be paved between the tracks. This request was also refused, it is said.

The action of the traction company may delay progress on Lisbon street until unfavorable weather sets in, the city engineer told city council. Rather than abandon the improvement this year, city council instructed the city solicitor to take immediate steps to force the traction company to lay new tracking on the Pleasant Heights line so that the paving work can proceed.

Alleged failure of the assistant clerk to serve notices on property owners along Fawcett street has delayed legislation in the installation of a proposed sanitary sewer along the street, E. E. Spivey, who headed a delegation of interested property owners, was told Monday night. Legislation on the project will be framed for submission at the next meeting, the delegation was promised.

Improvement of sewage facilities in Daisy alley, Morton street, Riley ave-and Carson alley was recommended by a committee of city council following an investigation of conditions along the streets which were called to the attention of city council by the board of health.

City council with the service director and city engineer, will view property under dispute along Harvey avenue and Elizabeth street, East End, to determine whether it has been assessed at its proper valuation. Property owners along the two streets have declined to pay their share of the street improvement on the two streets, declaring that their property has been overassessed.

Here are the appropriations for the various departments for the final half of the fiscal year ending December 31, 1920:

General fund, $6,591; safety department, $21,914.35; public health, $2,650; public service, $20,717; Thompson park, $525; water works department, $56,012.50; library fund, $2,300; City hospital, $3,100; grand total, $107,809.85.

Baldness Conquered

A veteran business man, who was most completely bald and had lost his hair, tonics, lotions, shampoos, in vain, to no avail. He was given a small elixir by which grew a complete crop of hair. The hair elixir is called "KOTALKO." Many other men and women, have reported remarkable aid to hair growth from dandruff, cessation of falling hair, etc.

In a vast number of cases, when hair roots are not dead, but remain for some time in the scalp, like seeds or beans, only feeding on the scalp, are of no avail. The Indian method is to rub the scalp with the roots of new hair, and it will stimulate growth. It costs little to try KOTALKO. It may be what's needed for your scalp and in such case it is a pleasure to observe the starting of new hair, and its rapid increase until prolific growth. DENY REPORT OF EXCURSIONS

Park Management Has Not Signed Contract With the Railroad Company.

Denial of rumors that the owners of Rock Springs Park had entered into a contract with the Pennsylvania Railroad by which excursions rates to the park were to be established beginning next year, was issued this morning by the present operators of the park.

The report that the park owners would also take up an extensive plan of rebuilding amusement concessions during the fall and winter, in anticipation of the excursion parties visiting the resort next year in the event of re-establishing excursions, was also denied.

"We have never been given any assurance by the railroad company that it would be established next year," said one of the park officials this morning. "However, we have been told by the railroad company heads that they are friendly to the idea of resuming excursions here but nothing can be done for the present owing to the scarcity of equipment."

It was intimated Tuesday that the park owners had been notified by the railroad officials that excursions would be re-established as soon as additional equipment could be secured. During the war, but little if any new railroad equipment was built and every available coach and locomotive was pressed into service for the moving of troops and war materials. As soon as the railroad, now that they have been restored to public ownership, can secure additional equipment, it is thought that excursion rates will be re-established.

One of the park operators stated on Tuesday, that no effort would be made to rebuild any of the concessions until they had absolute assurance that excursions would be resumed. It is believed that a few excursions may be operated here next summer.

WAR VETERANS TO HOLD OUTING AT PARK

The Veterans of Foreign Wars posts of Chester, East Liverpool, Steubenville and Pittsburg will hold their first annual outing at Rock Springs Wednesday, August 4, it was decided by the park management.

With the weather favorable more than 1,000 persons are expected to attend the outing. All the concessions will be in operation during the day, including the merry-go-round, the bathing pool and the dancing pavilion.

A dance for colored people will be given at the resort Wednesday evening. The Famous Players' orchestra of East Liverpool will be in charge.

To Visit Atlantic City.

Misses Eunice Allison, Martha Newell, Bess and May Wells, all of Chester, will leave Wednesday for Atlantic City, N. Y., where they plan to spend a week's vacation.

PROPOSED GAS RATE INCREASE DISCUSSED

Harry A. Quay, general manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat company, of Pittsburgh, conferred with Mayor J. L. Mayhew and members of the Chester city council, at a special meeting held in the city hall, here Monday evening. The conference was called at the request of the gas company officials to consider the application which has been filed with the West Virginia public service commission, seeking to advance gas rates to Chester consumers.

Mr. Quay explained to members of council that his company was forced to seek an increased rate owing to increased cost of labor and materials and the greatly decreased production. He stated that the increase proposed by the company was comparatively small for those using a moderate supply of gas, although a heavier rate was proposed to those using more than 40,000 cubic feet per month. The rate also is a move to encourage conservation of the gas supply.

The rate to domestic consumers will be 47 cents per 1,000 feet with a discount of two cents if paid before the tenth of the following month. The present rate is 37 cents, with a similar discount.

The councilmen took no action on the matter as the meeting was one of an informal nature. The question will be considered at a regular meeting to be held Thursday evening.

Mr. Quay was accompanied to Chester by George Radcliffe, of the Pittsburgh office, and Thomas H. Stephens, head of the East Liverpool office of the gas company.

PLANNED TO NOMINATE DAVIS ON 45TH BALLOT

Agreements had been made by which the tide in the Democratic national convention was to be turned to John W. Davis of West Virginia on the 45th ballot, had Cox gains failed to materialize, as they were generally expected to fall on the 44th, according to Governor Cornwell, who returned home Monday from San Francisco, where he placed Davis in nomination.

"No one in the convention was more surprised over the sudden Cox landslide on the 44th ballot than the Cox managers themselves," the governor declared. "They were hoping that he might eventually be nominated, of course, but they had no idea it was coming so suddenly."

"It was generally understood," Governor Cornwell continued, "that McAdoo having been given one more chance for a rally, which failed, the Cox forces were to be given that same opportunity, and it was expected to produce same results."

"We had agreements by which Alabama, which had voted two to six for Davis all the way through, was to vote solidly for him on the 45th ballot, and this was to be followed by enough other states to run his vote to 290 to 300 on the 45th ballot and carry him over the next. But the Cox whirlwind came on the 44th and it was all over."

Handel's "LARGO" sung by CARUSO

It is given here in its original form. The primitive scoring of Handel's time is enriched by a harp and by combinations of instruments not used in his day. First—a brief recitative—then the melody of the Largo is heard—at first low and remote but gathering strength and glory until the mighty voice of the singer emerges from its silence, growing in one magnificent crescendo. This is a record of unsurpassable grandeur.

"SUDS" A Queen in a French Laundry

"Suds" might well be called "The Tale of a Shirt." Mary Pickford is scoring a big success in her latest United Artists picture at the American Theatre in her latest film offering "Suds."

The story of "Suds" is all laid about a common, ordinary shirt which is left to be washed in a small laundry in the slums of London by one Horace Greensmith, a cheap actor.

The role played by Mary Pickford is that of Amanda Afflick, the woe-bone slave in the laundry. Amanda, having received the shirt when it was tossed over the counter to be laundered, promptly falls in love with its owner. It is some months before the shirt is called for but in the meantime, Amanda washes it twice a week "to keep his memory clean," and for edification of the other girls, weaves such wonderful romances about herself and Horace that she has the other girls in the laundry believing them and practically believes them herself. In many a side splitting scene Amanda tells the girls how her father, the Arch Duke, has sent her out into the world to be loved by herself alone and not for her vast fortune—that when Horace returns for his shirt it will be the signal that all is well and that the man has proved his love and she can return to her rightful station in life.

Miss Pickford has already earned the right to be called the screen's foremost artist, but with the performance as Amanda Afflick she has put this right in a niche where it probably can never be touched by any of the present or coming screen stars.

One moment she has you rocking with laughter over her tribulations when she brings Lavender, the ex-laundry wagon horse into her little tenement room, and in the next, crying with her when you see her spurned by the man about whom she has woven the wonderful romance concerning herself.

Handel's "LARGO"
CARUSO

It is given here in its original form. The primitive scoring of Handel's time is enriched by a harp and by combinations of instruments not used in his day. First—a brief recitative—then the melody of the Largo is heard—at first low and remote but gathering strength and glory until the mighty voice of the singer emerges from its silence, growing in one magnificent crescendo. This is a record of unsurpassable grandeur.

CORTOT
plays Chopin's "BERCEUSE"

This delicate and exquisite cradle song is played by Cortot in such a manner that you feel that he has persuaded the instrument into hypnotizing you.

PICKFORD

A Queen in a French Laundry

"Suds" might well be called "The Tale of a Shirt." Mary Pickford is scoring a big success in her latest United Artists picture at the American Theatre in her latest film offering "Suds."

The story of "Suds" is all laid about a common, ordinary shirt which is left to be washed in a small laundry in the slums of London by one Horace Greensmith, a cheap actor.

The role played by Mary Pickford is that of Amanda Afflick, the woe-bone slave in the laundry. Amanda, having received the shirt when it was tossed over the counter to be laundered, promptly falls in love with its owner. It is some months before the shirt is called for but in the meantime, Amanda washes it twice a week "to keep his memory clean," and for edification of the other girls, weaves such wonderful romances about herself and Horace that she has the other girls in the laundry believing them and practically believes them herself. In many a side splitting scene Amanda tells the girls how her father, the Arch Duke, has sent her out into the world to be loved by herself alone and not for her vast fortune—that when Horace returns for his shirt it will be the signal that all is well and that the man has proved his love and she can return to her rightful station in life.

Miss Pickford has already earned the right to be called the screen's foremost artist, but with the performance as Amanda Afflick she has put this right in a niche where it probably can never be touched by any of the present or coming screen stars.

One moment she has you rocking with laughter over her tribulations when she brings Lavender, the laundry wagon horse into her little tenement room, and in the next, crying with her when you see her spurned by the man about whom she has woven the wonderful romance concerning herself.

W. E. WELLS, SR., ON WAY HOME FROM EUROPE

W. E. Wells Sr., general manager of the Homer Laughlin China company, is expected home the latter part of this week from Europe, where he has been visiting for the past five weeks.

Mr. Wells, who attended the international conference of Chambers of Commerce, held at Paris in June, sailed from Southampton, England, last Wednesday, according to a cablegram received by members of his family here Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wells in his message stated that he was "on his way home."

The local pottery manufacturer went to Paris early in June as the representative of the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce. The special ship, chartered to take delegates from the United States, docked at Antwerp, Holland, and from thence the delegation proceeded to the French capital in a special train. Returning home, Mr. Wells came via La Havre, across the English channel to Southampton. The return trip is being made in an English vessel.

Wins Golf Championship.

Forrest McNeill, of Clarksburg, won the West Virginia state golf championship title at White Sulphur Springs, when he defeated J. J. Holloway of Wheeling, in the finals, 12 up and 10 to play.

The Clarksburger started out strong and had his rival up at the turning point, and continued to pile up an overwhelming lead in the return. Holloway seemed badly off form and was unable to do anything on short shots. His driving was fair, but even in that department he was outclassed.

J. M. Wells of Newell was eliminated from the finals, having been defeated Thursday.

Passes Ohio Examination.

Dr. A. L. Turner of Newell, who recently graduated from the Jefferson Medical college at Philadelphia, Pa., has been granted a license to practice medicine in the state of Ohio by the state medical board.

At the present time, Dr. Turner, who visited here for some time following his graduation, has been working at the Passavant hospital at Pittsburgh. He has not decided where he will locate.

FIRST OF MAY LUCKY FOR THIS DAYTON' WOMAN

Mrs. Cathright Regained Her Health Through Nerv-Worth And Has Needed No Medicine Since First of May. Read Her Letter.

"I suffered for years with nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion and all attendant ills," said Mrs. Fannie Cathright, 26 S. Wilkinson St., Dayton, Ohio. "And I couldn't get any restful sleep and was going down grade. I couldn't digest my food properly, and even milk disagreed with me. Gas would form on my stomach, and cause me great misery. I was unable to get anything to relieve me until I noticed advertisement of Nerv-Worth and concluded, as a last resort, to try a bottle of it. And that one bottle did its work completely and relieved me entirely of all the ailments mentioned. That was the first of May, but I have not needed any since. I can eat anything I want, when I want it, and digest it. I sleep soundly all night through, and am back to my normal strength and vigor. I recommend Nerv-Worth to any one that is troubled as I was." The above is more convincing proof that Nerv-Worth gives relief quickly, and that its results are permanent. If you suffer from nervous troubles, stomach trouble, or any of their attending ills, why not let Nerv-Worth help you back to health? You'll be surprised how quickly you will notice results, and how soon your ills will disappear. This is because Nerv-Worth is made after a scientific formula which does not act mechanically, but in a sensible way. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble, aids the deranged organs, and thus gives the desired results. For many years Nerv-Worth has been one of the most reliable of remedies. It is giving results in millions of cases, and succeeding where others have failed. As a favor to yourself, in order that you might enjoy good health, buy a bottle of Nerv-Worth. Take it according to directions, and if it doesn't help you, your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nerv-Worth is sold by C. T. Larkin, and all other drugists.

No other tubes in the world are road tested on so big a scale as Firestones. The Yellow Cab Company of Chicago uses Firestone Tubes exclusively on its 800 taxicabs. The service of these tubes is checked constantly—improvements and developments are arrived at.

By close watching of a large number of tubes in service—not confined to isolated instances—the conclusions are accurate and definite.

Firestone puts the best in materials into tubes by establishing purchasing experts at Singapore, center of the world's rubber market. Firestone puts the best in workmanship into tubes by organizing the crack manufacturing organization of the industry on a profit-sharing basis.

And then subjects the finished product to this big-scale road test—in order to get you more for your tube money and more miles out of your tires. And yet Firestone Tubes cost no more than the ordinary kind.

POTTERY STRIKE BENEFITS PAID

Report of Disbursements from 1895 to April 30, 1920, is Made by National Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

(By M. K. Zimerman)

From 1895 up to April 30, 1920, including the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters paid strike benefits to the amount of $119,226.23 or an average per year during the last 25 years of $4,769.05.

These statistics were disclosed at the convention by the presentation of the report of the Executive Board. The fiscal year of the organization closed May 30.

Pottery Manufactured in Morocco

The principal articles of pottery manufactured in Fez, Morocco, are bowls, jars, tiles, glazed and colored goods, such as plates, dishes and also small lamps. The usual fuel used in firing is "doum" or dwarf palm, but olive stones and skins and similar refuse from the oil presses in the town are also used. The colors employed to ornament the pottery are blue, red, yellow and black. The blue dye is imported from the United Kingdom and is known as "beriya." The green is obtained from an amalgam of copper and lead; the yellow from earth that is brought from near Fez, and known as "safa" (yellow); and the black from another kind of earth obtained near Fez. The secret of the blue dye which was formerly used, and which is seen on old tiles and pottery, has been lost.

The glaze used is made from lead, pewter, copper, and a white sand obtained from the neighborhood of Meknes. Lead is obtained from the lead paper used for packing tea, being bought up all over the country. Pewter is obtained by melting down old pewter teapots, the usual teapots used in Morocco and the copper by melting down old copper cooking utensils. Scraps and shavings of brass and copper are brought from the copper-smiths and also utilized.

Tiles have only one face dipped in the glaze and dye, but other articles such as plates, are plunged completely into the glazing mixture. The designs, which are varied but all conventional, are painted on by hand. In some of the potteries a machine has been introduced by the French for making large tiles; the designs are stenciled on, and four tiles make up the pattern.

The potteries of Meknes are not so extensive as those at Fez, but are of the same general character. Considerable quantities of square tiles for floors and walls, ornamented with designs copied from old Moorish tiles are now being manufactured at Meknes and exported to France, while others, made in plain colors are mostly sent to Rabat, Marrakesh, and other towns for local use.

Large plates and dishes and jars of various shapes and sizes are also made in the Meknes potteries; some of these are exported to France, as objects d'art, but the greater part are at present sold locally.

Curved green tiles, used for roofing and a thin brick building purpose are also made.

FIRST TIME IN MANY YEARS SHE HAS FELT WELL

E. Liverpool Lady Had Been Sick for Eight or Nine Years. Had Spent About $500 With No Apparent Result.

Noticed Statements of Reliable People in Papers Regarding Dreco; Made Up Her Mind to Try It and Claims She is Well Once More.

"My wife has been in poor health for the past eight or nine years," said Mr. Charles Nelson, residing at 215½ West Sixth street, East Liverpool, O.

"She had to undergo two operations, but didn't seem able to regain her strength afterwards and we were much worried about her."

"I had spent about $500 trying to get her well, but the results were anything but encouraging, so I suggested that she try Dreco."

"I thought she would have to take about a dozen bottles before we could see any good result, she was in such bad shape, but it has taken only three bottles to put her in the best of health and we just think Dreco is wonderful, why my wife feels better and looks better than she has for years."

"She is no longer constipated, her bowels move regularly and easily, the headaches and pains in her back have all gone; she has a fine appetite; sleeps sound and her nerves are strong and steady; she has no more dizzy spells; eats whatever she wants without having gas to form and bloat her up. Well, she seems like another woman and I am very grateful for what Dreco has done for her."

"I am going to take some of it myself, just to get in the 'pink of condition'."

Dreco does not contain any iron, mercury, potash, acids or oils, but is made from the juices and extracts of many herbal plants, which combine with the juices of the stomach very pleasantly and act on the vital organs.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in East Liverpool by Flick's Drug Store, Fifth and Market streets.

Pauline Starke, who plays the leading role in James Oliver Curwood's famous story, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," is an excellent animal trainer although she never realized it until called upon to tame Tara, a bear that plays an important part in the story. Director David Smith insisted that Miss Starke become familiar with the grizzly used in the production and soon she had him performing many feats not included in the script.

Jack Curtis is a past master in the art of makeup. He plays the role of Brokaw in James Oliver Curwood's famous story, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone." This character is half man and half beast, a savage brute, gambler and drunken sot. He has an important scene in "The Nest" with Niles Welch, as David Raine, when he mistakes the latter for an old friend. In this scene Jack Curtis shows his ability as an actor of unusual merit.

This is an incident in James Oliver Curwood's famous story, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," in which Pauline Starke plays the title role.

They say that John J. McGraw has decided to return to the old, sound system of developing his Giants from the abundant raw material instead of buying them on the hoof from other clubs.

McGraw is combing the tall grass for young players as it has not been raked in years by his scouts. He will inspect a large consignment of green talent next spring and will carry as much of this material as the league regulations will permit.

Back in the golden days of the Giants many budding athletes were carefully nurtured by McGraw for months before bursting into radiant bloom. George Burns sat on the bench for a year before his opportunity came. Dave Robertson, Arthur Fletcher, Charley Herzog, Ross Young, Jeff Teareau and Earl Smith were a few McGraw-made players who were developed either on the bench or by some minor league manager closely associated with McGraw.

The Giants of those days were colorful. They reflected the spirit of a great leader and, in our opinion, the most progressive baseball director the game ever knew.

One More World's Championship

McGraw is not given to discussing his baseball ambitions, but he cherishes a desire to win one more world's championship before he steps out as a field manager. He failed dismally in 1911 and 1913, and he was outdone in 1912 and 1917. But we believe that if he can rebuild his team with fresh, young material within the next two years, he will step out on the coaching lines again and be the McGraw of old.

A Reprieve for Veteran "Spitballers."

The new baseball rules have now received a thorough trial, and it is safe to predict that a few of them will be tossed in the ashcan next winter. The American League has already returned to the old system of judging hits over outfield barriers fair or foul according to where the ball is last seen by the umpire. The intentional pass regulations are not being enforced and a strong reaction has set in against the proposed elimination of "spitball" pitchers from the major leagues.

The "spitball," like old John Barleycorn, will die a natural death if allotted a reasonable time to expire. The minor leagues are not developing this type of pitchers any more because the "spitter" is forbidden in most of these organizations, and young pitchers know they have no future in the major leagues if they stick to freak deliveries.

There is a growing sentiment among the big league owners, however, against casting out all "spitball" pitchers next season. Every American League club has at least one of these pitchers and the National League harbors several. The elimination of all these pitchers in one season is therefore considered an unnecessary sacrifice of property rights.

Strict enforcement of the rules against "chine ball" pitching and the "doctoring" of baseballs have hampered pitchers to such an extent that batters are the featured performers this season. Even the arrival of hot weather has not appreciably decreased the hitting or improved the pitching. It is actually a relief to see a "spitballer" bob up now and then to curb the wielders of mighty maces.

A majority of the "certified spitballers" now toiling in the major leagues are veterans who developed the delivery to hang on in fast company. At the most they have only a few seasons to go. It seems unfair to suddenly deprive them of their means of livelihood. For these reasons a majority of the club owners should vote to retain them as long as they can hold the pace.

It will be no easy matter for the American League to replace in one season such clever pitchers as Covaleskie, Quinn, Shocker, Daus, Sotheron and Russell, or for the National League to recover from the loss of Doak, Goodwin, Douglas, Hendrix, Fillingim, Mitchell, Grimes and Fisher.

Club owners, who have discussed this prospect informally, agree that these men should be permitted to yield gracefully to time, and it is almost certain that they will be the objects of special legislation next winter.

TILDEN FIRST TO GAIN HONOR

Made Great Showing In Winning British Singles Title.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The success of the American Davis Cup team members in the London and Wimbledon tournaments, especially that of William T. Tilden, 2d, the tall Philadelphia star, was highly gratifying to devotees of the net game on this side of the water.

Tilden's great showing in winning the British singles title from Gerald Patterson a feat that gives the Philadelphia player leeway to lay claim to the world's singles championship if he so desires, was inspiring.

The American national indoor singles champion was never in such fine fettle as he is this season, and it goes without saying that he will be a prime favorite to wrest the National singles title from Wm. M. Johnston and a classic field of opponents when the annual tournament is held at Forest Hills in the Fall.

The superb game played by Tilden was altogether impressive. Nothing approaching it was ever witnessed before on English courts, according to British experts themselves, many of whom have covered all the important tennis events on the other side of the pond for a decade or more.

An interesting fact in connection with Tilden's career is that, although he has been playing tennis ever since he was about three years ago that he gained any real prominence. That year he was eliminated by R. L. Murray in one of the early rounds, though he gave the veteran Californian a terrific battle.

The year 1918 was Tilden's banner year. He went through eleven tournaments that season without tasting defeat and set a record unequalled in American tennis. An indication of how good Tilden really is may be had from a statement made by Norman Brookes after he met defeat at the hands of the Quaker star, said Brookes:

"It is my honest opinion that Tilden is the greatest tennis player ever born and he will grow better with more experience."

MULLINS' FIND EASY PICKING

Defeat Ellwood City Club, 6-1 —Hard Schedule Ahead.

With Sanders pitching effectively throughout the game, the Salem Mullins club easily defeated the Ellwood City (Pa.) team at Salem Saturday afternoon. The score was 6-1.

Sanders gave up but two safe hits, while the Quakers hit frequently and timely. Deitrick, former Three I. Leaguer, played his first game at short for the Mullins against the Pennylans and his initial performance won for him a steady berth.

Manager Ruhl is now negotiating with an Akron club for a game Wednesday at Salem. It is likely that the Westinghouse team of Pittsburgh will be booked for Saturday and there is a possibility that the Massillon Central Steels, now battling for the semi-pro championship of the United States, will take Ruhl's team for a game Thursday.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

At Philadelphia—Lew Tendler out-fought Willie Jackson in eight rounds. At Rochester—Abe Friedman of Boston, won from Roy Moore on a foul in the sixth round.

CLOSE-UPS

HOME MADE VS. "ASSEMBLED" TEAMS

They say that John J. McGraw has decided to return to the old, sound system of developing his Giants from the abundant raw material instead of buying them on the hoof from other clubs.

McGraw is combing the tall grass for young players as it has not been raked in years by his scouts. He will inspect large consignment of green talent next spring and will carry as much of this material as the league regulations will permit.

Back in the golden days of the Giants many budding athletes were carefully nurtured by McGraw for months before bursting into radiant bloom. George Burns sat on the bench for a year before his opportunity came. Dave Robertson, Arthur Fletcher, Charley Herzog, Ross Young, Jeff Teareau and Earl Smith were a few McGraw-made players who were developed either on the bench or by some minor league manager closely associated with McGraw.

The Giants of those days were colorful. They reflected the spirit of a great leader and, in our opinion, the most progressive baseball director the game ever knew.

One More World's Championship

McGraw is not given to discussing his baseball ambitions, but he cherishes a desire to win one more world's championship before he steps out as a field manager. He failed dismally in 1911 and 1913, and he was outlucked in 1912 and 1917. But we believe that if he can rebuild his team with fresh, young material within the next two years, he will step out on the coaching lines again and be the McGraw of old.

A Reprieve for Veteran "Spitballers."

The new baseball rules have now received a thorough trial, and it is safe to predict that a few of them will be tossed in the ashcan next winter. The American League has already returned to the old system of judging hits over outfield barriers fair or foul according to where the ball is last seen by the umpire. The intentional pass regulations are not being enforced and a strong reaction has set in against the proposed elimination of "spitball" pitchers from the major leagues.

The "spitball," like old John Barleycorn, will die a natural death if allotted a reasonable time to expire. The minor leagues are not developing this type of pitchers any more because the "spitter" is forbidden in most of these organizations, and young pitchers know they have no future in the major leagues if they stick to freak deliveries.

There is a growing sentiment among the big league owners, however, against casting out all "spitball" pitchers next season. Every American League club has at least one of these pitchers and the National League harbors several. The elimination of all these pitchers in one season is therefore considered an unnecessary sacrifice of property rights.

Strict enforcement of the rules against "chine ball" pitching and the "doctoring" of baseballs have hampered pitchers to such an extent that batters are the featured performers this season. Even the arrival of hot weather has not appreciably decreased the hitting or improved the pitching. It is actually a relief to see a "spitballer" bob up now and then to curb the wielders of mighty maces.

A majority of the "certified spitballers" now toiling in the major leagues are veterans who developed the delivery to hang on in fast company. At the most they have only a few seasons to go. It seems unfair to suddenly deprive them of their means of livelihood. For these reasons a majority of the club owners should vote to retain them as long as they can hold the pace.

It will be no easy matter for the American League to replace in one season such clever pitchers as Covaleskie, Quinn, Shockier, Dauss, Sothoron and Russel, or for the National League to recover from the loss of Doak, Goodwin, Douglas, Hendrix, Fillingim, Mitchell, Grimes and Fisher.

Club owners, who have discussed this prospect informally, agree that these men should be permitted to yield gracefully to time, and it is almost certain that they will be the objects of special legislation next winter.

TILDEN FIRST TO GAIN HONOR

Made Great Showing In Winning British Singles Title.

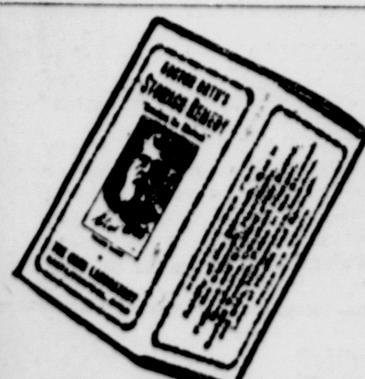

NEW YORK, July 13.—The success of the American Davis Cup team members in the London and Wimbledon tournaments, especially that of William T. Tilden, the tall Philadelphia star, was highly gratifying to devotees of the net game on this side of the water.

Tilden's great showing in winning the British singles title from Gerald Patterson, a feat that gives the Philadelphia player leeway to lay claim to the world's singles championship if he so desires, was inspiring.

The American national indoor singles champion was never in such fine fettle as he is this season, and it goes without saying that he will be a prime favorite to wrest the National singles title from Wm. M. Johnston and a classic field of opponents when the annual tournament is held at Forest Hills in the Fall.

The superb game played by Tilden was altogether impressive. Nothing approaching it was ever witnessed before on English courts, according to British experts themselves, many of whom have covered all the important

MULLINS' FIND EASY PICKING

Defeat Ellwood City Club, 6-1 —Hard Schedule Ahead.

With Sanders pitching effectively throughout the game, the Salem Mullins club easily defeated the Ellwood City (Pa.) team at Salem Saturday afternoon. The score was 6-1.

Sanders gave up but two safe hits, while the Quakers hit frequently and timely. Detrick, former Three I. leaguer, played his first game at short for the Mullins against the Pennsylvanians and his initial performance won for him a steady berth.

Manager Ruhl is now negotiating with an Akron club for game Wednesday at Salem. It is likely that the Westinghouse team of Pittsburgh will be booked for Saturday and there is a possibility that the Massillon Central Steels, now battling for the semi-pro championship of the United States, will take Ruhl's team for a game Thursday.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

At Philadelphia—Lew Tendler out-fought Willie Jackson in eight rounds. At Rochester—Abe Friedman of Boston, won from Roy Moore on a foul in the sixth round.

INDEPENDENTS WILL HOLD PRACTICE TONIGHT

Manager Shel Pyle of the East Liverpool Independents, today issued a call for practice for the Independents to be held this evening at West End park at 5:30 o'clock in preparation for the games with New Comerstown and Coshocton Saturday and Sunday.

Manager Pyle announced today that he had signed Brown, an outfielder, and Meeks, catcher, formerly of the Newell team, for the Heimies.

CHARGED WITH FAILURE TO PAY DOG LICENSE

An affidavit was filed in Justice D. M. McLane's court Monday charging E. D. Wilson, Mulberry street hardware dealer, with failure to pay the license fee for his dog.

Deputy Sheriff Rollins of Lisbon, who notified Wilson to secure a license for the dog, alleges that Wilson refused to make the application. The deputy sheriff filed the complaint but in the interim, it is claimed, Wilson mailed the money for the license to the county treasurer at Lisbon. When served with the papers, Mr. Wilson demanded a jury trial. His case will come up for hearing the latter part of the week.

SUSPECT IMPERSONATION OF REVENUE OFFICERS

That bands of heavily armed men, under the guise of federal prohibition officers, are acting as guards to whisky runners between Pittsburgh and points in Ohio, is the belief of the Beaver county authorities.

Two police officials of Beaver Falls were returning to Beaver from Rochester Saturday night when they noticed three men in an automobile standing along the road. The officers investigated and one of the men flashed a badge and a prohibition officers' certificate. Later a truck came along the road, heavily loaded, it is believed, with whiskey. The three men in the touring car fell in behind the truck as it passed.

Ex-Mayor W. F. Orr, today issued a call for a meeting of East End Democrats to be held next Tuesday evening, for the purpose of forming a Cox-for-President club here. The meeting will be held in Patterson's hall, Mulberry street.

Following the organization of the club, regular meetings and rallies will be held.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN

nowadays are entering the professions or business world and go to work day after day in bad health, afflicted with some female ailment, dragging one foot weakly after the other, working with an eye on the clock, and wishing for closing time to come.

Women in this condition should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. It has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy. Give it a trial.

CUTICURA HEALED BOY'S ECZEMA

In Blisters About Ears.
Scratched And Irritated.

"My little boy had a breaking out about his ears which developed into a severe case of eczema. The breaking out was in blisters causing him to scratch and irritate it very much. When he went to bed I had to tie his hand, and many nights he slept very little."

"I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them, and after using four cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Ointment he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. E. Bowerman, Mesick, Michigan.

Cuticura For Toilet Uses

Use Cuticura Soap for toilet purposes, assisted by touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed. By using these delicate, fragrant, super-creamy emollients for all toilet purposes you may prevent many skin and scalp troubles becoming serious. Cuticura Talcum is indispensable for every toilet table.

RIVER NEWS

The Liberty Transit company, the largest packet concern on the upper Ohio river, has just closed a deal for the purchase of the side-wheel packet, Senator Cardell, from a Mississippi river company, it was stated Tuesday.

The Senator Cardell, which will be the fastest passenger and freight-carrying craft afloat in upper Ohio waters, will likely be placed in the Pittsburgh-Huntington trade and will make regular stops in East Liverpool. The steamer will have a passenger-carrying capacity of 100.

The Liberty Transit company, organized during the World War in Wheeling, W. Va., to left the burden of war shipments from the sorely-harassed railroads, is rapidly forging to the front as a packet concern and now practically controls the packet service on the upper Ohio river. With the purchase of the steamer Senator Cardell, the company will operate six river craft—the General Crowder, General Wood, General Pershing, General Beach, the Liberty and the Senator Cardell. These craft ply between Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and way points.

The new Pittsburgh terminal of the Liberty Transit company is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for use by the end of this week.

EAST PALESTINE

Announcement was made today by officials of the Penn-Tex Oil company that plans are under way to lay a four-inch main from East Palestine to the gas well struck last week on the Attorney W. E. Warren farm, four and one-half miles southwest of here.

Drilling outfit employees late Saturday succeeded in harnessing the flow from the well by placing a heavy valve cap over the drilled hole. Tests made indicated a 800-pound pressure which, it is estimated, will give a flow of 1,000,000 cubic feet per day. The drilling machine Monday was moved to another site on the Frank Kammel farm, 4,000 feet from the first well. Drilling operations will begin Tuesday night. The Penn-Tex Oil company, which holds leases on 1,000 acres in the vicinity of the producing well, is headed by Joseph Caulfield, former mayor of Johnstown, Pa. Caulfield visited the field near here Sunday and gave orders to proceed with the immediate development. The output of the first well will be sold to East Palestine consumers, while if other drillings are successful New Waterford and Columbiana will be served.

Polls in the final election of chamber of commerce directors closed Monday evening. Seven directors will be chosen from fourteen nominees. The nominees are L. M. Kyes, C. H. Rukenbrod, Enos Yoder, P. C. Hartford, C. G. Herbert, W. S. George, John Irwin, C. L. Merwin, George Agnew, William Morris, C. F. Woods, Fred Owen, Joseph Chamberlin and Ford Chamberlin.

Plans for the organization of a Cox and Roosevelt league are under way here. Local Democrats will gather at meeting in Memorial hall this week to organize.

Prominent Republicans of Columbiana county are expected to come here Friday evening to attend a political rally under the auspices of the Lincoln-Roosevelt-McKinley league. William H. Boyd, Wood-pledged delegate-at-large at the Chicago convention, and Major Charles W. Montgomery of Newark, state president of the Republican league, will be the speakers.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoons will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap—two ounces will supply

CHARGED WITH FAILURE TO PAY DOG LICENSE

An affidavit was filed in Justice D. M. McLane's court Monday charging E. D. Wilson, Mulberry street hardware dealer, with failure to pay the license fee for his dog.

Deputy Sheriff Rollins of Lisbon, who notified Wilson to secure a license for the dog, alleges that Wilson refused to make the application. The deputy sheriff filed the complaint but in the interim, it is claimed, Wilson mailed the money for the license to the county treasurer at Lisbon. When served with the papers, Mr. Wilson demanded a jury trial. His case will come up for hearing the latter part of the week.

SUSPECT IMPERSONATION OF REVENUE OFFICERS

That bands of heavily armed men, under the guise of federal prohibition officers, are acting as guards to whiskey runners between Pittsburgh and points in Ohio, is the belief of the Beaver county authorities.

Two police officials of Beaver Falls were returning to Beaver from Rochester Saturday night when they noticed three men in an automobile standing along the road. The officers investigated and one of the men flashed a badge and a prohibition officers' certificate. Later a truck came along the road, heavily loaded, it is believed, with whiskey. The three men in the touring car fell in behind the truck as it passed.

Following the organization of the club, regular meetings and rallies will be held.
